MEET THE PEGASUS WORLD CUP CONTENDERS

By Johnny D., @XBJohnnyD

KNICKS GO: Winner of the Grade 1 Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile last out, this 5-year-old son of Paynter appears to finally have developed into the high-quality runner his connections assumed he was at 2 when he was a Grade 1 winner of Keeneland's Breeders' Futurity. Currently, Knicks Go is riding a dominating winning streak—his last 3 starts by over 20 lengths. And he performs well off layoffs, too, ones similar to what he'll experience heading into the Pegasus World Cup. Trainer Brad Cox also has been on a roll—one that's lasted throughout the entire 2020 season. Expect this grey steed to be on the early Pegasus pace as he attempts to stretch his speed and ability over one mile and one-eighth. If no one challenges him early, he could be gone.

CODE OF HONOR: Placed second in the 2019 Kentucky Derby, this son of Noble Mission is no stranger to Gulfstream Park. He won the Fountain of Youth Stakes here and then was third in the Florida Derby. He also checked in third behind original winner Maximum Security in that year's Kentucky Derby. The highlight of this horse's career came during a stretch of 3 consecutive graded stakes wins in the summer of 2019—Grade 3 Dwyer, Grade 1 Travers and Grade 1 Jockey Club Gold Cup (via disqualification). He's earned $2.6 million with 6 wins in 15 career starts, including 12 in-the-money finishes. Last out he was second by a length to Bodexpress in the Grade 1 Clark at Churchill in November. Look for him to be closing in the lane.

TAX: This 5-year-old gelded son of Arch enters the Pegasus off a decisive wire-to-wire victory in the Grade 3 Harlan's Holiday at Gulfstream Park going one mile and one-sixteenth. That was his first start since finishing fifth in the Grade 2 Oaklawn Handicap May 2. Always well-regarded, Tax won the Grade 3 Withers and then was second in the Grade 2 Wood before finishing 14th in the Grade 1 Kentucky Derby of 2019. Fourth in the Grade 1 Belmont Stakes, he returned to win the Grade 2 Jim Dandy before finishing off the board in the Grade 1 Travers, both at Saratoga. In last year's Grade 1 Pegasus World Cup, he started at contender's odds of 4-1, but stumbled at the start and finished ninth. His best finishes have come when he's been able to sit just off the early pace.

SLEEPY EYES TODD: Connections hope this 5-year-old horse can parlay a pair of 7-furlong stakes victories into a $3 million Grade 1 Pegasus score at one mile and one-eighth. In November, 'Todd won the Lafayette at Keeneland and in December delivered a mild upset in the Grade 3 Mr. Prospector at Gulfstream in his only try over the surface. In 3 previous tries at the Pegasus distance, 'Todd has a runner-up effort as a 3-year-old in the Grade 3 Oklahoma Derby at Remington, a win in the Grade 2 Charles Town Classic and a fifth in the Grade 1 Awesome Again at Santa Anita. This will be the first time since 2019 that the grey runner will make back-to-back starts at the same track. He made 8 starts in 2020, all at different tracks and with different riders each time. He won 4 of those. Overall, he's won 8 of 15 starts and earned nearly $750k. Expect him to be near the early Pegasus pace.

PEGASUS WORLD CUP

TURF CONTENDERS

By Johnny D., @XBJohnnyD

SAY THE WORD: This 6-year-old gelding has been in good form since August when he won a Saratoga allowance race. Since then he's finished third in the Grade 3 Singpiel, won the Grade 1 Northern Dancer (both at Woodbine) and been third in the Grade 2 Hollywood Turf Cup at Del Mar. Those last two efforts came in one mile and one-half races, distances that perfectly suit his late-running style. An earner of nearly $500k, he should appreciate the one mile and three-sixteenths layout at Gulfstream Park. He is trained by Phil D'Amato and is based in Southern California at Santa Anita.

STORM THE COURT: A veteran of 8 consecutive graded stakes races against fellow 3-year-olds, the now 4-year-old Storm the Court has had big shoes to fill after winning an Eclipse Award as the nation's top 2-year-old colt in 2019. Always competitive, the Grade 1 Breeders' Cup Juvenile winner hasn't won a race since that wire-to-wire triumph in November 2019, but has been second twice and third twice. Overall, he's had just 3 career turf races, with 2 seconds, most recently by three-quarters of a length in the Grade 2 Mathis Brothers Mile at Santa Anita. In that one-mile race, this son of Court Vision assumed the early lead and was caught in the stretch. Expect similar tactics in this longer race over a layout that favors front runners.

LARGENT: If there's a horse for course in this race, this could be the guy. The 5-year-old gelding enters off a sparkling tally in the Grade 2 Fort Lauderdale at a mile and one-eighth over the Gulfstream Park turf course. That was his sixth win in 9 starts and his fourth in 5 trips over the GP turf course. The son of Into Mischief never has raced farther than one mile and one-eighth but, if eventual Hall of Fame trainer Todd Pletcher thinks the gelding can do it, who are we to argue? Largent has won races while close to the lead and from well off the pace, so he's versatile and at this longer distance shouldn't be too far from the early pace.

SOCIAL PARANOIA: This guy is extremely versatile. He's won on turf at distances from seven and one-half furlongs to one mile and five-sixteenths. He's got a pair of Grade 3 victories in his holster and he was second, beaten less than one length, in the Grade 1 Belmont Derby in July 2019. He's trained by top Gulfstream gun Todd Pletcher and has won 3 of 5 turf starts over the local course. The 5-year-old son of Street Boss has won 5 of 16 overall and earned nearly $1 million. He made just 5 starts in 2020, winning 3. He's got enough early pace to be within striking distance when the real running starts.

ANOTHER TWIST AFATE: This 5-year-old California invader decisively won the Grade 2 San Gabriel Stakes last out at Santa Anita. It was only his second turf start among 10 career outings. He's won 5 times overall and was on the 2019 Triple Crown trail with a string of 3 early wins and 2 seconds against fellow sophs. Things never panned out, culminating in a 10th-place Preakness finish, and the horse was transferred to current trainer Peter Miller for his most recent pair of races, better efforts and both on turf. He's got enough speed to be close early and, depending on final instructions, could take the early lead. Distance is a question but, in the past, horses have been known to find rejuvenated careers after making surface changes. That could be the case here.

In its 4 years, the Pegasus World Cup has had 3 runners at 20-1 or more finish in the superfecta (top-4): Neolithic at 23-1 in 2017, Fear the Cowboy at 74-1 in 2018 and Seeking the Soul at 34-1 in 2019.

The PWC pacesetter has finished out of the money in 3 of 4 past renewals. Mr Freeze held for second last year at 7-1 odds to become the first front-runner to finish better than sixth.

No horse who had made a prior start at the Gulfstream Championship Meet has finished in the PWC exacta. Two have finished third in the 4-year history of this race.

MR FREEZE	1/16	Gulfstream	5 furlongs	:59.83

Second in this race last year at age 5, it seems Mr Freeze is like a fine wine – only getting better with age. I'm not sure the son of To Honor and Serve has ever been better! His Jan. 16 drill over a glib Gulfstream Park surface (one in which he loves) was as good as I have ever seen him. He broke off sharply and finished up strong thorough the wire, every 1/8-mile getting better and better. That was in stark contrast to the (solo) work he put forth last year going in 1:03-and-change before the World Cup...and he ran second!

TAX	1/8	Palm Meadows	4 furlongs	:46.45
---------------------	-----	--------------	------------	--------

Tax's tour de force win in the Harlan's holiday stakes as a prep was simply brilliant. Off for 7 months prior, he has rebounded in terrific form and is simply a must-use. Judging by his sharp solo half-mile mile drill January 8, perhaps we may see a better version of Tax this year. He looks like he means business moving fluidly thorough the lane, ears pinned showing the grit and determination that has made him the ultimate over-achiever.

SAY THE WORD 1/18 Santa Anita (tt) 4 furlongs :49.20
 Say the Word is thriving right now. His grass work at Santa Anita on January 10 was pleasing, but his solo, half-mile breeze on the training track 8 days later was, in trainer Phil D'Amato's very word, "tremendous." He bounced over the training track for 4 furlongs like it was a warm-up event, and proceeded to gallop out an extra lap (not a misprint) with so much energy and ease. He has tremendous air! I find myself watching his works with my foot hovering over an imaginary gas pedal, dying to step on it to see what'll happen. I will be waiting eagerly to find that answer out on Saturday.

LARGENT & SOCIAL PARANOIA 1/16 Palm Beach Downs 4 furlongs 1:01.49

Largent is as consistent a racehorse as you'll find, never finishing out of the exacta in nine career starts. The same can be said for his library of works collected on XBTv. He is usually found working on the Palm Beach Downs main track, outside of company, with the exact same gameface on. January 16 was the quintessential drill for this 5-year-old gelding. Enough said. His work partner on this morning was Pegasus World Cup Turf rival Social Paranoia, who appears on the lazier side - or simply finds the dirt surface hard work. He's tougher to endorse off his breezes, but you can't ignore his record on the turf at Gulfstream.
